

AS A LEADER THINKS...

Dwight Mason

Thinking That Can Sabotage Your Leadership

- _____ thinking
- _____ thinking
- _____ thinking
- _____ thinking

Ways Leaders Think Differently

- They look for _____.
- They think about the _____ good.
- They can separate _____ from opinion.
- They change their opinion as _____ changes.
- They distill complex scenarios into _____ terms.

Habits to Becoming a Better Thinker

- Cultivate _____ thinking.
- Engage in _____ thinking.
- Explore _____ thinking.
- Harness _____ thinking.
- Utilize _____ thinking.
- Rely on _____ thinking.
- Practice _____ thinking.

Positive Thinking

1. Instead of thinking only of _____, they _____ others.
2. Instead of dwelling on _____, they focus on _____.
3. Instead of advancing their _____ success, they work toward _____ a successful team.
4. Instead of making things _____, they _____.
5. Instead of trying to determine _____ is right, they think in terms of _____ is right.
6. Where others think _____, they think _____.
7. Where others become _____, they stay _____.
8. Where others want _____, they go with the _____.
9. Instead of thinking, "Let's just get this _____," they ask themselves, "How can I get this done with _____?"
10. Where others wish they had more _____, successful leaders work to appreciate _____ more.

Four Overarching Types of Thinking to Be Successful

- _____ thinking
- _____ thinking
- _____ thinking
- _____ thinking

Great leaders think...

- _____, not _____
- _____, not _____
- _____, not _____
- _____, not _____

— Craig Groeschel